

Invitation to Contribute to "Imagining Jesus"

Dear Friends and Creatives,

We are excited to invite you to participate in a unique and meaningful project: "Imagining Jesus." This collection seeks to explore and expand our visual understanding of Jesus through images that comfort, challenge, or disturb. Our goal is to present a rich tapestry of depictions that reflect the diverse ways Jesus is imagined across different cultures and communities.

Why Participate? "Imagining Jesus" aims to break away from traditional portrayals and open a dialogue about how Jesus is seen and understood in various contexts. Your contribution will help in creating a collection that is inclusive, thought-provoking, and reflective of the global Christian experience.

What We Are Looking For:

- Racially Diverse Images: We encourage submissions that represent Jesus through various racial and ethnic lenses.
- Emotional Range: Images that evoke comfort, present challenges, or even disturb are all welcome. We are interested in pieces that provoke thought and conversation.
- Creative Interpretations: Images in any style or medium are encouraged. Whether your work or the work you select is realistic, abstract, modern, or traditional, we want to see it.

Submission Guidelines:

- Format: High-resolution digital images (JPEG or PNG)
- Deadline: Monday, September 2, 2004
- Submission: Please send your image and a brief description of the work and its inspiration or why you selected it to d\_case@gmx.net.

Recognition and Impact: Selected works will be featured in our Convocation Convention gallery.

We look forward to seeing the depictions of Jesus that have stirred, comforted or challenged you. Thank you for considering this invitation to contribute to "Imagining Jesus."

Warm regards,
